THE STAFF OF 1952

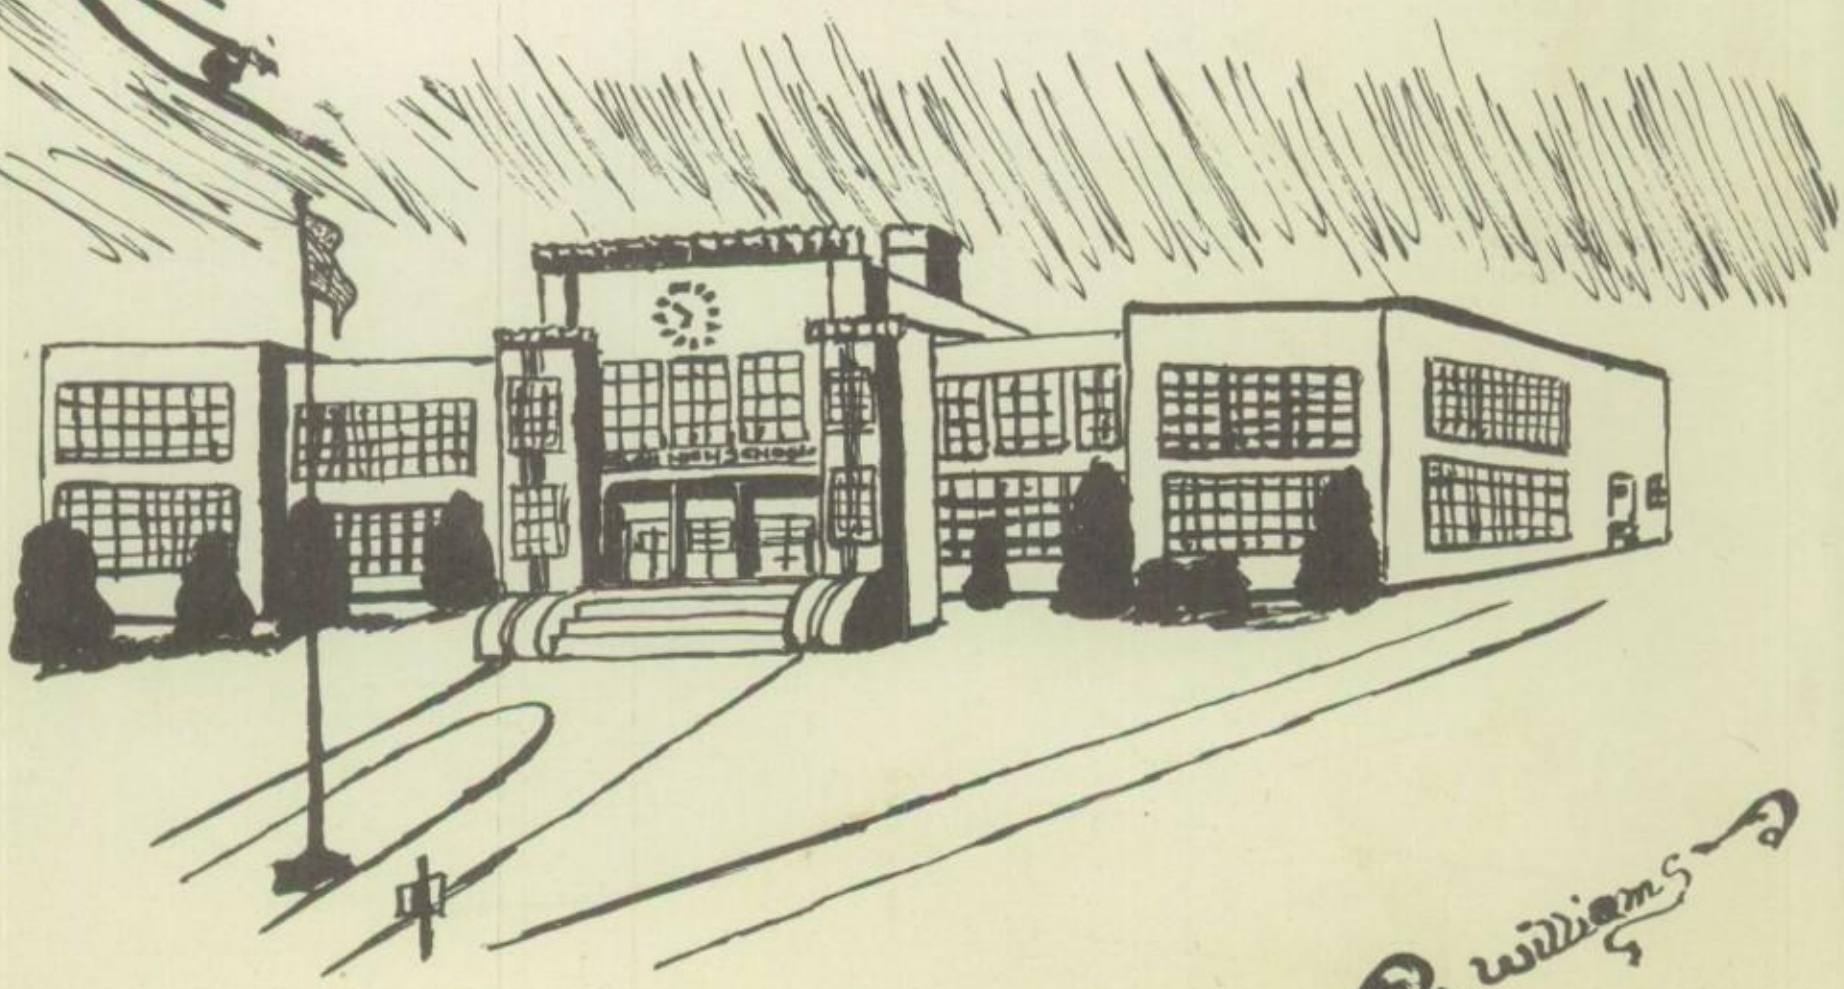
Dedication

Very best wishes
for a nice little girl
Claude Denney

MRS. CLAUDE DENNEY

It is with love and appreciation that the Staff of 1952 dedicate this Annual to one of our beloved teachers, Mrs. Claude Denney, who because of heritage, training and personality, has fulfilled the splendid attributes of a high calling. Her years of success as a teacher of Mathematics in Milan High School have been exemplified by outstanding accomplishments in the lives and work of hundreds of alumni. The evaluation of these years can be made by no mathematical dimension but by the unmeasured regions of lasting influences.

Administration



Superintendent's Message

TO THE SENIOR CLASS:

I wish to thank the Sponsor, the Annual Staff, and the graduating Class of 1952 for the privilege of bringing you greetings and commendations from the faculty of your school.

To you of the Class of 1952 I want you to know that I have a personal feeling toward you that is deeper than that of the graduating classes for the past three years. Like you I am completing four years in M.H.S. and you are the first graduating class I have been privileged to work with throughout your high school years.

This yearbook is an example of a job well done. It is one of the many things you have left that will be remembered. Each of you is leaving impressions, influences, and records that will go to shape the pattern of other graduating classes of Milan High School. I trust that when you receive your diploma you can say, "My High School job was well done." If you cannot truthfully say that, I hope you can purpose in your heart that you will endeavor to do the best job you can as you continue your preparation for life and as you face life's problems.

The faculty is proud of the Class of 1952. Many of you have excellent records. Statistics show that good high school records are indicative of success in life's work.

We are proud of your accomplishments thus far and nothing will make your old teachers happier than to see, hear, and read about you in the next few years "Doing a good job."

Very sincerely,

Jimmy Thomas

Class Will

FOREVER and FOREVER ----- AMEN

We the class of 1952 of Milan High School, have the hope in our hearts that we shall never be forgotten as we go out into the great unknown. Thus, we Seniors, being unbalanced in intellect, and of ill-reputed character, do ordain, constitute, and construct this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I: To the faculty we leave our greatest appreciation for the kindness and personal attention they have taken in each of us.
ARTICLE II: To the Juniors we leave the hope that they can find "all the Senior privileges" next year. (We didn't!)
ARTICLE III: The following Seniors make PERSONAL bequeaths:

DEAN CANTRELL leaves her intelligence and will to study to any Junior who thinks they can do as good a job. MARY LOU SAMPSON leaves her ability to answer her own questions to Bill Tatum. JIMMY PARR leaves his class ring and Barbara McLean. The latter he leaves with regret. EVELYN TATE grants to Sara Johnson her ability to "make eyes." HAROLD FLY unselfishly leaves his big feet to anyone that has the excess energy to carry them around. FRANCES ARRINGTON leaves her athletic ability to Yvonne Appleton. BILLY FERGUSON and BETTYE POWELL leave their eternal love for one another to Patsy Seavers and Bobby Billops. NANCY KEATON bequeaths her grin and everlasting smile to Lova Baker. BOBBY GAIR wills his innocent look and mischievious ways to Robert McKelvy. BILLIE SUE HODGES can't bear to leave anything so she is taking all her possessions with her. VINSON ALEXANDER and BUBBA FLY leave their ability to win an argument to Billy Teague and Thomas Robertson. HOPE GRIZZELL leaves her brain to the Chemistry Lab. (to be analyzed). KENNETH MAYO leaves his love women to Jimmy Casey and Jerry Bradford. MARTHA GROSS leaves her "little" body to Delores Ingram. JERRY WOOD and THOMAS VAWTER leave the agriculture department to the Hudspeth boys, Howard and Paul, that is. MARTHA BLAZER leaves her pretty dimples to Christine Lindley provided she has the patience to sleep with her fingers in her cheeks. LARRY PARKER leaves his friendliness and well-liked personality to Rex Tatum and Huey Holt. GLENDA COLE grants her problems of life to Carmel Culpepper. JOE RAY CROCKER wills his shyness to Elmer Bramley and Joe Whitby so they may benefit the rising Senior Class in being quieter. ANN BUTLER bestows her vim, vigor and vitality upon Jean Kee. JERRY BARGER and DEAN APPLETON grant their knack of throwing erasers accurately in the 6th period typing class to Wayne Phillips and Leon Edgin. MARTHA HUNT leaves her shorthand talents to Ethelyn Williams, Margaret Cole and Patsy Young. JOE D. PIERCY grants his "super" trips to Humboldt to any fellow who may appreciate their meaning. RUTH WOODS leaves her little sister, Jean, hoping her classmates will "take care of her." JOHN MAYO leaves a few pounds of weight to Billy McClure, Billie Evans and Charles Washburn. MARY ANNE EVANS bequeaths her desires for a handsome Van Johnson to Lula Bell Meadows. JAMES and NORMAN GOLDSMITH leave their brotherly love to Billy and Bobby Arnold. CHERRY BROWN leaves her efficiency to Shirley Walker. DEVON ROLLINS leaves his ability to capture the hearts of the fairer sex to Odell Hatley. MARY ELLEN PERRITT bestows the management of the D.E. Store upon Robert Doyle, a fellow member of the D.E. Club. WILMER MAY leaves his Yankee impersonations to Bennett Jones (A true Yankee). HARRIETT DRAKE leaves the school paper and all that goes with it to Rebecca Williams. Since he has a bountiful supply, JOHN BELL leaves part of his witticisms to Franklin Pillow. DOROTHY RIMMER leaves her well-known giggle to Barbara Jones. JAMES McLEAN leaves his quiet ways to Terrell Seavers. HELEN LEEMAN and MARTHA VERNON leave their talents of song to Ella Jean Goodwin and Joan Green. WANDA TACKETT bestows upon Pat Thomas and Carma Cloys her plentiful supply of make-up. JIMMY LASTER bestows upon Billy Mize his dread for P.E. MARIANNE CALDWELL leaves her most sympathetic regards to those behind us. BOBBY DOYLE leaves his nonchalant look to Carl Vawter and Dan Barger. JOYCE STAVELY leaves her politeness to Iris Kirk. RAY ESSARY leaves his well-known quotation "Miss Johnnie I have my history" to James Clarke and Jerry Beasley. BOBBIE SUE COX leaves her original ideas on any subject to Helen Peek. JOY TACKETT leaves her sparrow-like appetite to Peggy Bowles. ARLIS RICHARDSON wills his book of "How to get by Without Work", to Billy Stafford and Bobby Stewart. DONALD VICKREY grants to Sammy Pope his position on the football team providing Sammy will stick to the job.

MARTHA NELL WOOD leaves her sense of humor to Betty Manner. CECIL CRIDER wills his good manner. to Alfred Adcock. PEGGY WILLIAMS leaves her ability to get around to Faye Magness. EVA NELL and MERLENE CARROLL leave their neatness to Margaret Boulton. MARTHA KILLEN and CLARA RUTH OLIVER leave their good natured ways to Bobby Spain and Zola Vann. JOE DOYLE leaves all his Army life to Garland DeShazo and Harold Gordon. THELMA WEST leaves her ability to get a husband to Imogene Replogle.

Class History

As the dawn settled unsuspectingly over the earth in the fall of 1940, seventeen mothers were frantically trying to dress squirming bits of humanity. It seemed that these future seniors just didn't want to learn anything more than to make mud pies or to elude the sheriff's possee. But, alas, their struggles were in vain; school was upon them.

As this tender scene fades away we find ourselves, at last, in the factory of learning. Listen closely and you may hear shrieks of terror as parents depart and Cecil Crider, Eva Carroll, Peggy June Williams, Jimmy Parr, Mary Anne Evans, Bettye Powell, Merlene Carroll, Cherry Brown, Marianne Caldwell, Nancy Keaton, John Mayo, Ann Butler, Glenda Cole, Vinson Alexander, Bubba Fly, Dean Appleton and Bobbie Sue Cox were left in the presence of teachers who were wondering if these darlings, who looked so innocent, were hiding any booby traps.

Each day brought new worlds to conquer and this bunch caught on fast; they even succeeded in driving Miss Young, the first grade teacher, into marriage.

the succeeding years which were spent in seperate buildings because of the war boom were under the direction of Mr. Bradberry, Miss Ocie, Miss Reba, Miss Jane McLean, Miss Holmes, and Mrs. Hattie Keaton. Is there a soul now alive that fails to remember that fateful day when Miss Hattie, bustling back from the office, softly crept into the library and peeping through the curtains caught our heroes talking? I suppose the sight must have amazed her, for she fairly swooped down upon unsuspecting heads and demanded her revenge! Funny why no one could sit still for a week.

But we must hasten on or we shall forever remain in grammer school. After the sixth grade Miss Edith, Miss Vennie, Miss Nola, and Mr. Cooke had the pleasure of polishing us up for high school.

After the green shine of a freshman wore off, our high school careers were filled with experiences of Mr. Thomas suspiciously writing excuses and the hard wham of a size eleven shoe belonging to Mr. Mayo. Then came the hardest battle of all--Ceasar! But without Miss Johnnie gently threatening to drag Latin students to the office the cause of education would be forever lost.

As sophomores and juniors we struggled along packing pretty green bugs to Mrs. Hicks, shouting poetry at Mrs. Haun, pestering Mrs. Davidson for the page number of a speed test, and convincing Mr. Odle we knew the difference between NaCL and H_2O.

At last the big year! Our senior year has been bursting with tears, joys, hopes and new rings. But beneath it all there is the fervent hope that as we step through another portal it will be toward success and honor for M. H. S.

See you in the Hall of Fame!

Class Prophecy

Well, here I am, the most famous tale bearer alive, who knows and tells all. I'm going to report, straight from my nest, on that immortal class of 1952, that graduated ten years ago.

I'll start with Jimmy Laster. Jimmy, the second Paderewski, is a famous concert pianist with Cecil Crider as his manager.

Our senior class president, Vinson Alexander, is now the head doctor of a large Hospital. He is a bachelor but makes eyes at his two right hand nurses, Bobbie Sue Cox and Martha Nell Wood.

Bobby Gair is head of Atomic research in Washington. He and his assistant Arlis Richardson, sent unique Christmas presents last year--Miniature Atomic Bombs! Mary Anne Evans was so excited when she received hers, that she dropped the package and hasn't been heard from since.

Frances Arrington, Thelma West and Helen Leeman have recently returned from their second honeymoon.

Billy Ferguson and Joe David Piercey are big FBI men now. They always keep Bubba Fly handy as their lawyer to get "them" out of jams.

Martha Ann Gross and Mary Lou Sampson are now working in Carnegie Hall! Yes, sir--they wield a wicked mop and keep the stage immaculate.

Martha Lee Vernon, a missionary, has just returned from China. Also, the Goldsmith twins and Joe Doyle have just returned from visiting their good friends, the Mayor and Mrs. Ki Poong of Seoul.

Merlene Carroll and Eva Nell Carroll are the owners of "Carroll and Carroll's Miserable Meals," the ritziest joint in New York.

In case you haven't recognized the voice of the stars of "It Pays to be Funny," it's John Bell and Hope Grizzell. Incidentally, the script is written by Ruth Woods and Dorothy Rimmer and is sponsored by Glenda Cole's new vitamin packed product--Sog--the cereal that doesn't crunch, crackle, or pop, but just lies, glares up, and defies you to eat it.

Johnny Mayo and Joe Ray Crocker own a midget auto racing outfit. It is really "hot" stuff.

Remember Hariett Drake? Well, she's still an editor. This time she is head of "Blab" a new national newspaper, which features the comic strip "Big Orphan Andy" drawn by Peggy Williams. Kenneth Mayo, with his loud clear voice, has won unrenown fame for his "Corner" where he sells the "Blab,"

Dean Cantrell, voted most likely to succeed, is Einstein's successor. She has just edited the Book of Knowledge and of course Dean needed help and so hired Ann Butler, Martha Hunt and Clara Ruth Oliver as her secretaries.

Evelyn Tate and Joy Tackett were recently in a beauty contest for Miss America." Wanda Tackett, a manufacturer of cosmetics, was on hand to watch the feat. We have two "Miss Americas." It was a tie.

Nancy Keaton has returned home to Alaska where she and her family live. Nancy has recently been elected cutest Eskimo in the clan.

Marianne Caldwell got married and had twleve kids. She thought she would stop with a football team but found that they come cheaper by the dozen.

Jerry Barger is now manufacturing erasers. I guess to make up for all those he tore up in class. Donald Vickery writes cute little poems for advertisements. The factory would not be complete without Dean Appleton and Jerry Wood as the top salesmen.

Falsh--Important! Larry Parker, Devon Rollins and Bobby Doyle have just completed a trio flight around the world two times without stopping. They have set a new record!

Jimmy Parr, the former captain of our football team, is making plans for a trip to Mars. Harold Fly has helped design the rocket ship. Jimmy plans to take Billie Sue Hodges along to show the people of Mars what the typical American girl looks like.

Thomas Vawter and Ray Essary now run a dairy farm. They furnish, well no they don't but their cows furnish milk for a large University where Joyce Ann Stavely, Martha Blazer and Cherry Grown have made quite a name for themselves as teachers.

Martha Lynn Killen and Bettye Ann Powell are now making their second million manufacturing their popular line of dresses--Flash On--which are made from burned out light bulbs, their own invention.

Class Prophecy Con't

James McLean and Mary Ellen Perritt went into business together. They run a zoo in New York because their favorite animals are monkeys. Wilmer May is their famous animal trainer.

That's all the information I have, so I'll close my report. But if anyone asks you, remember, you heard it from a little bird!

Marianne Caldwell

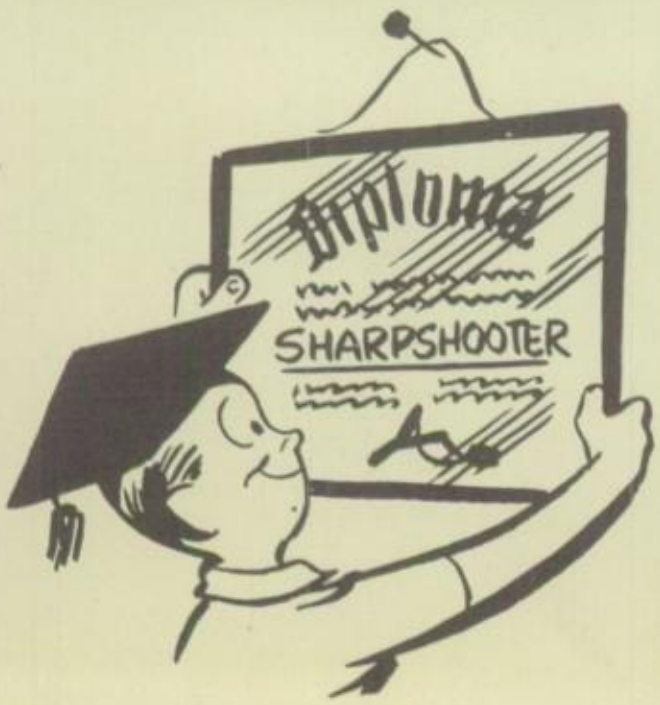
Three Seniors whose high school work was interrupted by the Korean struggle when the National Guard Company from Milan was sent to Korea in January 1951 have returned with records of distinction in the service of their country on battle-fields of the Far East.

These boys, Norman Goldsmith, James Goldsmith, and Joe Doyle are welcomed by their Alma Mater for the completion of their work in Milan High School. Their courage, their efforts, and their cooperative spirit have made a large contribution to the Class of '52.

JAMES GOLDSMITH
"Through zeal knowledge is gotten."

NORMAN GOLDSMITH
"Our life is what our thoughts make it."

JOE DOYLE
"A mind content, a conscience clear."



"Remember When ..."

Little Donald was almost through with his nightly prayer. "Bless papa, bless mama, and bless Aunt Bess, and please make St. Louis the capital of Missouri, Amen," he concluded. "Why Donald! exclaimed his mother, deeply shocked, "Why on earth did you say such a thing?" "Because, said Donald, "I put that on my exam. paper today."
